3044 AAS, Family Life Education Close-out Form

The 3044 AAS, Family Life Education degree was replaced during the Guided Pathways process with the Family and Consumer Sciences Instructional Council and the Curriculum & Transfer Articulation office. It was archived in the 2020 Summer semester. The 8139 AA Family Life Education degree replaced 3044 AAS, Family Life Education, as developed during the Guided Pathways work, and was offered to students in the 2020 Fall Semester.

Students who were declared in the 3044 AAS Family Life Education degree plan were contacted by the Engagement Specialist team during the Fall 2020 semester and given the choice to move to the new 8139 AA Family Life Education degree plan or participate in a teach-out plan for the prior degree plan. Students opting for teach-out were informed they would need to complete all courses in the 3044 AAS Family Life Education degree plan by the end of the Fall 2022 semester to graduate with this degree.

The last student completed the coursework for the 3044 Family Life Education degree plan in the Fall 2022 semester and was awarded the degree on 12/16/22. The degree status for this student was updated in the Student Information System on 1/13/23.

The chart below includes the number of students awarded the AAS, Family Life Education degree from AY2018-19 through AY2022-23. No students completed the certificate after AY2022-23, and no students were enrolled in the program at the time of its deletion.
